ALMA MATER

Mac Wright, '41

In the midst of nature's garden,
Stands our Alma Mater dear;
Stately edifice of culture
And of learning through the years.
Past us rolls the mighty river
Wooded acres on its shores.
God has formed a perfect background
For the school that we adore.

May the Hudson's sparkling waters
Surging onward to the sea
Symbolize the depth and passion
Of our loyalty to thee.
Rugged crags and towering mountains
In the distance meet the sky;
We will climb with you to guide us,
So, hail, all hail to thee,
Dobbs Ferry High.

DOROTHY ANN ADAMS

Time was made for slaves

Dorothy is noted for her charm and savoir-faire. Through her unique ideas and artistic work, she has become one of the most outstanding members of the class of '51. As Art Editor of the Periauger, her pictorial class history helped add individuality to the yearbook. A prominent member of the Art Club, she designed the backdrop for the "Mikado" and was the representative for the Activities Council. Her other activities are: Mixed Chorus, Library Club, and Career Club. Although you might not guess it from gym class, Dorothy enjoys tennis and horseback riding and works hard for perfection in these sports. She presents a smart appearance which is heightened by her graceful stature and poise. After careful research, Dorothy decided to apply to some of the top-ranking women's colleges in the East.

EVELYN JEANNE BELARGE

'Twas her thinking of others that made you think of her

Sincere and understanding, Evelyn is a loyal friend. Her pleasant and helpful manner makes her easy to work with. As an editor of the Periauger, she spent many hours in the business office typing copy, and was one of the most willing members of the staff. Evelyn has been a long-standing member of the Chorus and has taken part in all the musical presentations. Again her abilities and cooperativeness made her an integral part of the organization. Eve takes an important part in the work of the F.B.L.A. and can usually be found typing. She has also been its representative on the Activities Council. Evelyn's ambition is to be a private secretary, and her experience in office work will prove valuable to her.

JEROME EDWARD BIRNEY

Mischief, thou art afoot

Peewee is always up to some deviltry, but the glint in his blue Irish eyes gives him away. His refreshing and invigorating personality adds a witty atmosphere to classes. His daring exploits on the catwalks made him indispensable to the stage crew. He starred not only behind the scenes but also before the footlights. In such roles as Tiny Tim and the Indian in Custer's Last Stand he won everyone's applause. Supplementing his school activities, Peewee is an intrepid aviator and a mechanic of considerable merit. Besides working at the sea-plane base for several years he has managed to keep his car in running order. A homeroom athlete, Peewee has scored many points with the blackboard erasers. In spite of his impishness, his grand sense of humor and friendly nature have made him everybody's pal.

DOMINICK THOMAS CARELLI

Am I my brother's keeper?

Wherever you meet Dom, he greets you with his winning smile and friendly hello. Although he is not with us at present, we shall always remember his faithful participation in our class activities. Dom was a member of the F.B.L.A. during his senior year and was a steady player in the Boys' Inter-class League. Dom's sense of humor makes him a popular member of the Tophatters Club, where he spends much of his spare time. We all had a sample of his wit on the Senior Day trip when he had us rocking the boat with his antics. The first of our class to join the service, Dom showed the same fine spirit that made him a favorite with us all. He had planned to be an automobile mechanic after graduation, but such a person is a success in whatever field he may undertake.

DOLORES DONNA COLETTI

In each cheek appears a pretty dimple

When Dolores laughs her pretty face is brightened by her sparkling smile and flashing dimples. Although usually quiet, she has a will and determination which reveals itself especially in the field of sports. She has participated in every sport and plays them all with the same spirit. Whether hitting a home run in baseball or playing guard in basketball, Dee's tops. She is one of the few girls to win a large D in her Junior year. As a Sophomore she held the office of Class Secretary. She was also a member of the F.B.L.A. and Printer's Ink. We saw little of Dolores this year. During the first semester she worked in the afternoons, and she finished school in January after having passed the American History regents. Dolores, in her quiet and efficient way, will be a success in whatever she undertakes.

ELAINE LOUISE COMEAU

Art is power

Elaine, an artist through and through even to her temperament, is unquestionably one of our most talented classmates. Whenever there is a poster to be made, a sign to be lettered, or an illustrating job to be done, she is ready and willing. She gave much of her time and talent to the Art Club and other school activities. The shield which she designed, has been used on several pages of this yearbook. Besides being an accomplished artist, Elaine is a talented singer and actress. She took part in many Dramatic Club productions and was a particularly graceful and vivacious Peep-Bo in "The Mikado". Nor are these all her gifts. She is an active equestrienne as well, and has spent many Saturday mornings in the saddle. Because she is genuinely talented and an earnest and painstaking worker, we know that Elaine will succeed in her ambition to be an illustrator of children's books.

WILLIAM ALOYSIUS CONDON

I never think of the future, it comes soon enough

Bill instinctively dislikes anything academic on first sight. Preferring to attain athletic prominence, carefree Eight-ball has become a mainstay of the football, basketball and baseball teams. In football he was an end and played well both on the defensive and offensive. He played J.V. and Varsity basketball with his characteristic spirit of team work. In baseball he covered the keystone sack and his heavy bat carried a large share of the championships won. Every morning before school, Bill can be seen sauntering down to the store for his Daily News so he can keep up with the state of the world. Eight-ball has always managed to live up to his nick-name. His sheepish grin makes him appear guilty even when he isn't. After graduation Bill plans to join the Navy.

PATRICK JOSEPH CRISTELLO

Unconscious humor

Hailing from Ardsley High in his Junior year, Pat became a very welcome member of the class of '51. He soon established his reputation in the fields of sports and music. Playing gallantly on the football team, he plunged through the line or carried the ball around end for many gains. He fought hard for Dobbs Ferry and was often seen limping or wrapped in bandages—testimonies of his drive and spirit. He has also played basketball and J.V. baseball. Pat's bass voice has contributed decidedly to the Mixed Chorus and Double Sextet. As a member of the band he played the baritone with his customary zeal. Our cheerful and conscientious classmate was often seen in school during the noon hour handing out candy and joking with everyone. After graduation Pat plans to attend a liberal arts college and study chemistry.

JANICE DORENE CROFT

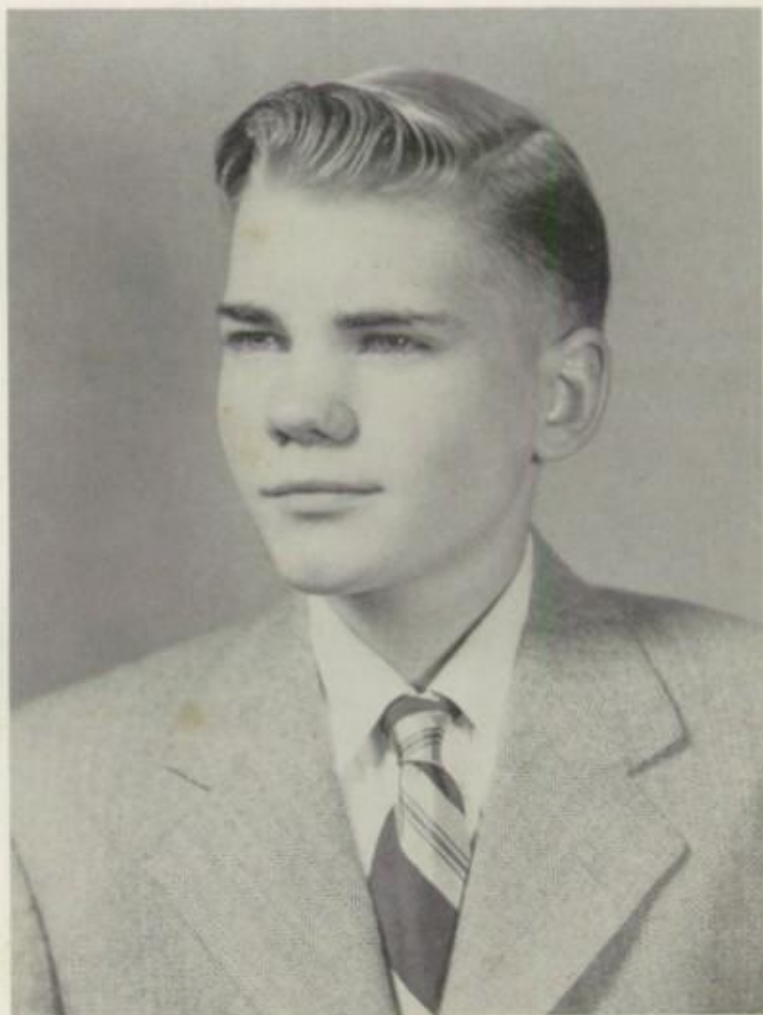

There is sweet music here

Janice was a new addition to our class this year. Her warm-hearted nature and sincerity have made us all like her. Although she skipped a year, Janice has found time from her studies to take part in many activities. Her interest in music has been shown all through high school by her participation in the Mixed Chorus and Girls' Octet. She has also performed on the piano in the schools' talent shows. The Dramatic Club was able to use her talents to good advantage in such plays as "The Pampered Darling" and "The Christmas Carol." Her interpretation of Mrs. Skinner in the Senior Play helped make it a success. In college Janice plans to major in journalism. Her writing ability and genuine interest in other people will make her a good newspaper woman.

THOMAS LEE ELFTMAN

He'll find a way

Tommy's courteous, calm and competent manner could well be imitated by us all. In his unobtrusive, business-like way, he gets things done. D. F.'s stage crew captain is constantly tinkering with clocks, radios and inventions in general—he is a whiz repairman. Tom gets a lot of enjoyment from his leisure pastimes. His room at home is the wonder of all who see it—a showcase of gadgets and collections of all kinds, including exhibits from his array of hobbies. Our blond and blue eyed mechanic is always neat and informally well groomed. Although studious, he is never too absorbed in class-work to ignore activities. "Mr. Fix-It" has been especially active in his Junior and Senior years, participating in the Chorus, Projection Club, Photography Club, Blu-White News and the Periauger. Tom's favorite subject is science. He wants to continue his studies at Cornell, aiming at a future in Conservation.

LEON BARRY ETTUS

I have nothing to declare except my genius

Leon's sense of humor is unique; he always keeps you laughing with him. How many times have our classes been livened up by his colorful comments? His carefree style flavors everything he does. On the athletic side, Leon has been a tennis team stand-by for three years and an Interclass Basketball steady for four. Aside from his athletic achievements, he has been one of the school paper's chief sports reporters, accurately giving a play by play description of all our games. He has also been a member of the Spanish Club and the Periauger staff. In his spare time, Leon, relaxing with a mystery story, plays amateur detective. Lee's plans for the future include college and a career as a crusading journalist.

THOMAS EDWARD FAY

The man who blushes is not quite brute

Tom, our popular class president, was an industrious, co-operative worker all through high school. His outstanding leadership made our senior year our best. He also served faithfully on the Student Council as a Junior and Senior. Better known as Bucky, he was not only a leader in class activities, but also an outstanding athlete. In his freshman year he was the only member of the class to make the varsity football team. As a Senior, he played in the line as fighting tackle. When the football season was over he doffed his heavy football togs for the lighter basketball uniform and continued his defensive role as guard on the basketball team. In the spring, the scene of his activities was the diamond where he was a hard-hitting first baseman. Bucky is everybody's friend and possesses a good sense of humor. He is noted for his neatness and courtesy and will be a popular leader in whatever field of endeavor he chooses.

JOHN MICHAEL FINNERTY

Man is a political animal

John's broad experience in government and social work makes him exceptional among people his age. He has travelled widely in Europe for the United Nations and was chairman of the Speaker's Board in UNICEF. Interested in public speaking, he has talked to many groups about his experiences. "Honest John" has served as mayor of Children's Village for three terms — a tribute to his executive ability. He came to Dobbs Ferry High in his Sophomore year and soon became known for his steady and dependable work. This year he has served as Treasurer of the Senior class. In his rare moments of leisure John likes to pursue his hobby of collecting stamps, rare coins and old documents. The future holds a law degree for "His Honor the Mayor" and the years to come have many new attainments in store for him.

ROSALIND JOSEPHINE GOLIO

On with the dance, let joy be unconfined

Roz's shining dark hair and chic clothes add to her attractive appearance. To her best friends she discloses a wonderful sense of humor with her witty remarks. Her sympathetic nature makes her a willing listener to other people's troubles. In school Roz was active in the F.B.L.A., Chorus and the school paper. She was Mr. Lindsey's "pride and joy" spending her free periods helping out in the office. In January Roz made the last hurdle and passed the American History Regents, but she came back to graduate with us in June. After a hard day's work in "that darn sewing factory," Roz relaxed with her favorite hobby—dancing. With her sparkling personality and interest in other people, she will undoubtedly make a success of her life.

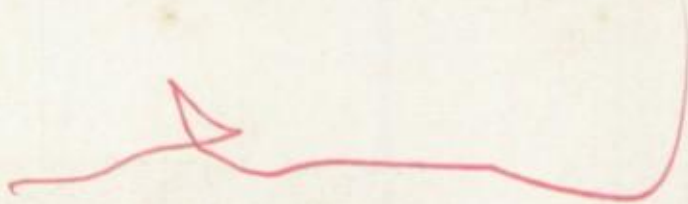

AUDREY MARGARET GRAY

Her heart is as sunny as her hair

Audrey's red hair is mute testimony to her impulsive nature and her flashes of temper which are usually directed at herself. Many a time her books or shoes have been hurled with fury. However, with her determination and abilities she has accomplished many things including swimming and sewing. In her thorough and competent way Audrey has done more for the class than any other girl. She headed the decoration committee for the Junior Prom which was one of our most successful dances. As the Editor-in-Chief of the Periauger she worked hard to make it a reality. Perhaps her hardest job was securing assignments when due. She was also active in the Career Club, Dramatic Club, Ushers Club, Chorus, Twirlers, Spanish Club, and Girls' Sports. No one is immune to Audrey's contagious laugh. Her good humor and perseverance will make her a success in any undertaking. Her executive and editorial abilities have been clearly demonstrated by her outstanding work on the Periauger.

WILLIAM HENRY GRIM

This man's errors make his affable

The sight of Bill on his bicycle with a paper bag slung over his shoulder is a familiar sight. In his shy and reserved way he quietly goes about accomplishing what he sets out to do, and is always willing to lend a helping hand. Willie has been a mainstay in the bass section of the Mixed Chorus for two years and in his Junior year was active on the school newspaper. In his leisure time Bill is fond of movies, sodas and sports, especially football. Our "Statesman Steady" is girl shy and a staunch believer in the fine art of being a bachelor. Bill hopes to be a teacher of math and science.

MARCELLA ELIZABETH HASSETT

Walking is the best possible exercise

A cheerful word and a friendly smile reveal Marcella's sunny disposition. Her pleasant personality makes her well-liked. As proof of this, in her Junior year we elected her class secretary and treasurer. On the athletic side, Marcy has been a faithful participant in Girls' Sports for many years, enthusiastically playing whatever sport was in season. She also took part in the work of the school paper, F.B.L.A. and Dramatic Club. Outside of school Marcy works at the Embassy where her friendly "Hello" has greeted us time and time again. For relaxation, she likes to take long walks and can often be found heading in an easterly direction. Marcella's future as a baby technician will be successful because of her calm and competent manner.

ANN ELIZABETH HAYES

She is good as she is fair

Ann is famed for her wonderful disposition and her captivating smile. Her wide-spread popularity was proved beyond a doubt when she was unanimously voted most popular in the class. Further proof of this is her election to the class offices which she held in her Junior and Senior years. As captain of the cheerleaders she pepped up the squad and cheered the team on to victory. This year she has also done a commendable job as Business Editor of the Periauger, and was Dobbs Ferry's representative on Macy's Junior Deb Board. Her numerous other activities include: Girls' Sports, Mixed Chorus, Activities Council, school paper and Junior Red Cross. One of the main stars of the Music Box Revue, she headed the kick chorus and danced the Tango. Ann was often seen with her three little charges, and after graduation plans to study nursing and continue working with children.

to Don

a flair for scientific achievement
I wish you good luck
but I know you won't

Billy

WILLIAM GUY HOOVER

Variety is the spice of life

During his school years Bill had a hand in nearly everything and achieved amateur fame in his accomplishments. He undoubtedly will be remembered for his many and varied talents, his friendly personality and his super-salesmanship. Who can forget his famous crooning or his rendition of "Dearie" which brought down the house at an assembly talent show? Activities were Bill's specialty, and although he was a small businessman in his spare time, he managed to contribute to Chorus, interclass basketball and the Dramatic Club. In his Junior year he became the president of the Spanish Club, and was elected to the Honor Society. As a Senior he was one of the most able and personable Student Council presidents the school has had, as well as a member of the Activities Council and Publicity Editor of the Periauger. After college Bill plans to work in advertising or public relations. He has a combination of enthusiasm and ability which should make him go far in the field he chooses.

NORRIS ATHERLY HAYFORD

Blow, Gabriel, blow

During his four years in high school Norris has proved himself noteworthy in many fields. His two favorite activities are band and sports. An important member of the band for four years, he is a versatile musician and can play almost any instrument. He has also used his musical talents to good advantage in the Mixed Chorus and Double Sextet. On the athletic field Norris was characterized by his earnest and wholehearted drive. He played halfback on the football team and catcher on the baseball team. Well remembered for his "Oh Woe" part of Marley in the "Christmas Carol", Norris was a very active member of the Dramatic Club and had an important part in "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". In his Senior year he was on the Activities Council and Vice-President of our class. Outside of school loquacious Norris is a member of the Tophatters Club and plays for the Tarrytown V. F. W. band.

PATSY LAWRENCE IOZZO

His bark is worse than his bite

Patsy, always bursting forth with a boisterous greeting or a mocking laugh, was the creator of many a homeroom uproar. Unrestrained and enthusiastic, his comments decidedly enlivened our class meetings. His good nature, however, bowed to fighting determination on the athletic fields, where he starred. A member of the football team for two years, Pat proved himself to be a half-back of considerable merit. In shortstop position he sparked the baseball nine to many victories. His favorite sport, however, was basketball. In his four years on the basketball team, he made a name for himself with his tireless defensive work, and proved himself to be an all around athlete.

Although excitable, Patsy's joking manner has combined with his outspoken but cheerful nature to win the friendship of his fellow students. His ambition is to someday own a bus company.

RUTH SHEVLIN JONES

In quietness and confidence shall be your strength

Ruthie appears to be quiet but her bursts of enthusiasm reveal her true personality. Her many and varied interests make her an absorbing conversationalist. After her trips to the Farm she returns with an endless supply of interesting tales which she tells with a flood of words. One of the most helpful and cooperative members of the class, Ruth's willing attitude has been a distinct asset to the many activities in which she has participated. Among these are: Dramatic Club, Chorus, Girls' Sports, Career Club, Twirlers, and Activities Council. She held the office of president of the Ushers Club and secretary of the Honor Society. With patience and persistence, Ruth accomplished a great deal and was invaluable to the Periauger as Make-up Editor. The qualities which have made her well-liked in Dobbs Ferry will make her a success in college.

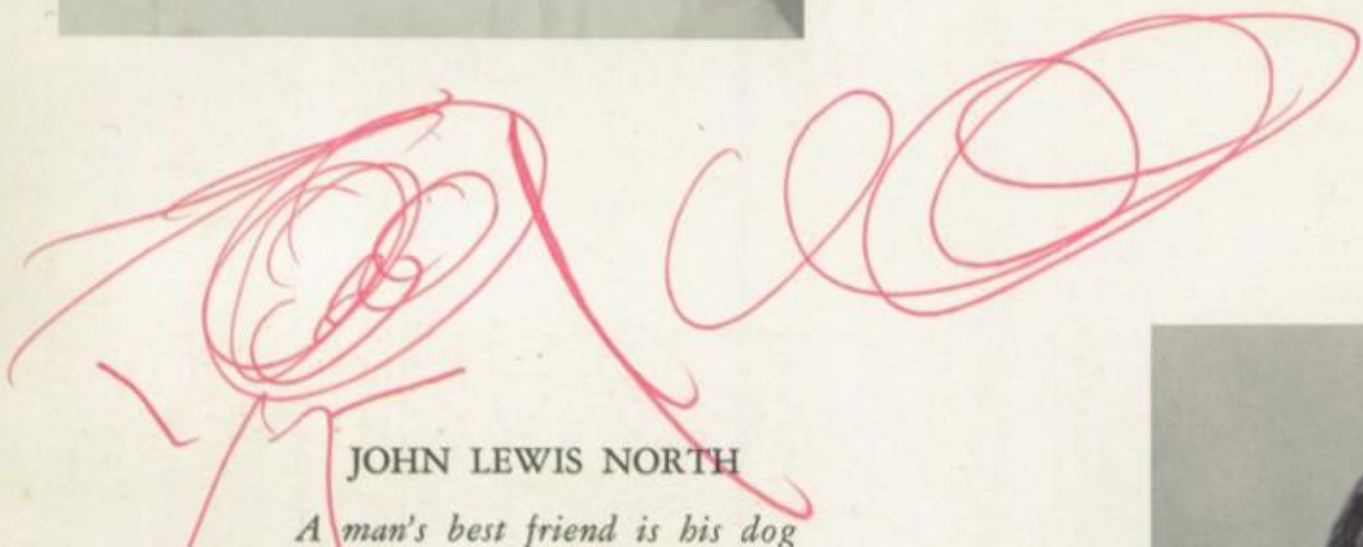

MADELON NINA NAPOLI

Softly speak and sweetly smile

Quiet and mild-mannered, Lonnie is one who makes friends easily. She is always willing to offer assistance and was a welcome addition to any activity she joined. As a member of the F.B.L.A., she spent most of her spare time in the Business Office typing up letters and announcements for the school. In addition to this, she was the Assistant Copy Editor of the yearbook and one of the more steady members of the Chorus. In the future, Lonnie plans to enter the field of merchandising. With the experience she has gained working in White Plains and her winning personality, she will undoubtedly make a success of her career and be able to fulfill her dream of traveling to California.

JOHN LEWIS NORTH

A man's best friend is his dog

Johnny, in his jovial, industrious manner, has been a worthy member of our class. Although much of his time was absorbed by outside activities, he did his share by faithfully attending most school functions. As a member of the Dramatic Club, John played the distinguished Ambassador in the United Nations Assembly program. He also participated in boys' inter-class and the F.B.L.A. Always working, John could be found delivering papers at an early hour; after school he busied himself making milkshakes and sundaes behind the soda fountain at Broadway Arms. An avid follower of current events, John will discuss politics at the drop of a hat and can support his views by information gleaned from his daily reading of the news. John's dog was almost as familiar to us as John himself for he was often seen riding in the basket of his master's bike.

WILLIAM JOHN O'CONNOR

I never hurry, neither do I worry

Affable, carefree Bill was seen whenever there was something going on around school. Very activity-minded, he contributed much of his spare time to the Periauger, the school paper, the Spanish Club, Chorus, interclass basketball and Varsity baseball. As a member of the Activities Council for two consecutive years, he represented the Projection Club. Our Trans-Lux Ticket Taker works at the Embassy and plays the fife for the American Legion Fife and Drum Corps. In his spare time, good-natured Bill enjoys sports, reading, fishing, and just listening to the radio. His natural easy-going manner makes him a welcome participant of all our class functions. After finishing school, Bill would like to travel to South America where he will be able to put into practice his knowledge of the Spanish language.

JOAN ALISON PRAY

Whose face is this, so musically fair?

Joan is one whose presence never goes long unnoticed. Her many talents have helped win the admiration of her fellow students. She first displayed talent as an actress in a monologue which she did for an amateur show, and was awarded the lead in "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". Then she proved to be a splendid director when she coached the Junior Dramatic Club plays. In the field of music she used her lovely voice to good advantage in the Mixed Chorus, Girls' Glee Club and Double Quartet. Joan's other activities included the Career Club, Activities Council, the school paper and the Periauger. Outside of school she is an excellent cook and a second mother to her adorable twin sisters. To a casual acquaintance, Joan appears quiet, courteous, and poised, but to her friends she is an endless source of amusement with her priceless imitations. Joan plans to go into a dramatic or nursing career when she leaves school.

EDCHEN EVELYN QUERKER

A fair exterior is a silent recommendation

Three years could hardly be filled more completely than the three which Edchen has spent in D.F.H.S. Her list of activities and accomplishments is long. She was a member of the Blu-White News, the Library Club and the Science Club. From the beginning of her Freshman year she was active in the Chorus, the Photography Club, Dramatic Club, Periauger, Projection Club and Ushers' Club. In her junior year she was the literary editor of the Periauger and became a member of the Honor Society. Besides taking part in so many activities, Edchen managed to maintain a high scholastic average, play the piano and base viol and belong to the Hudson Valley Symphony Orchestra. Edchen is not only an outstanding student and a busy person but also one of the most cheerful and friendly girls in the class. She has set her sights high, having chosen a career in the field of engineering.

SONIA MARY RAO

Cookery is become an art, a noble science

Sonia is one of the most cheerful and enthusiastic members of our class. She has always taken an active interest in school affairs and has worked hard to support them. One of the few on the staff of the school paper to survive its many changes, Sonia has contributed much of her time and efforts to this publication throughout the years. In Chorus she sang alto and was without a doubt one of the most cooperative of the members. An avid sports participant, she has been an energetic guard in basketball and upheld the honor of our class in many contests. She has also been in the F.B.L.A. and represented it on the Activities Council as a Senior. Because she is thoughtful and good natured, Sonia is fun to be with and will make a success of any career.

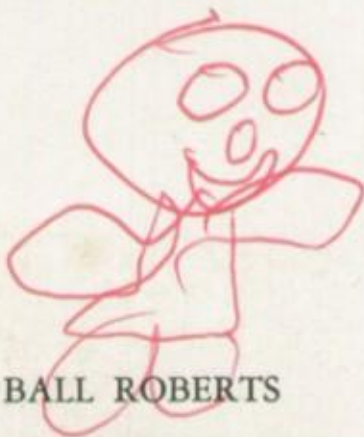

ANGELO FRANK RICCI

There was ease in Casey's manner

Angelo, known to all as Chick, is one of the leading boys' locker room comedians. To strangers he appears quiet, but his friends know him as the humorous clown he is. Chick has always taken an active role in sports. His work as defensive end in football was a distinct asset to the team. He also was an eager, ambitious basketball player. During his Freshman and Sophomore years he was active in interclass basketball and in his Junior year was promoted and played on the Junior Varsity team. When spring rolled around, Chick could be seen playing the outer pasture for the baseball team, being a participant during his Sophomore, Junior and Senior years. His time in sports was time well spent. Calm and easy going, Chick often surprises us with his unusual sense of humor.

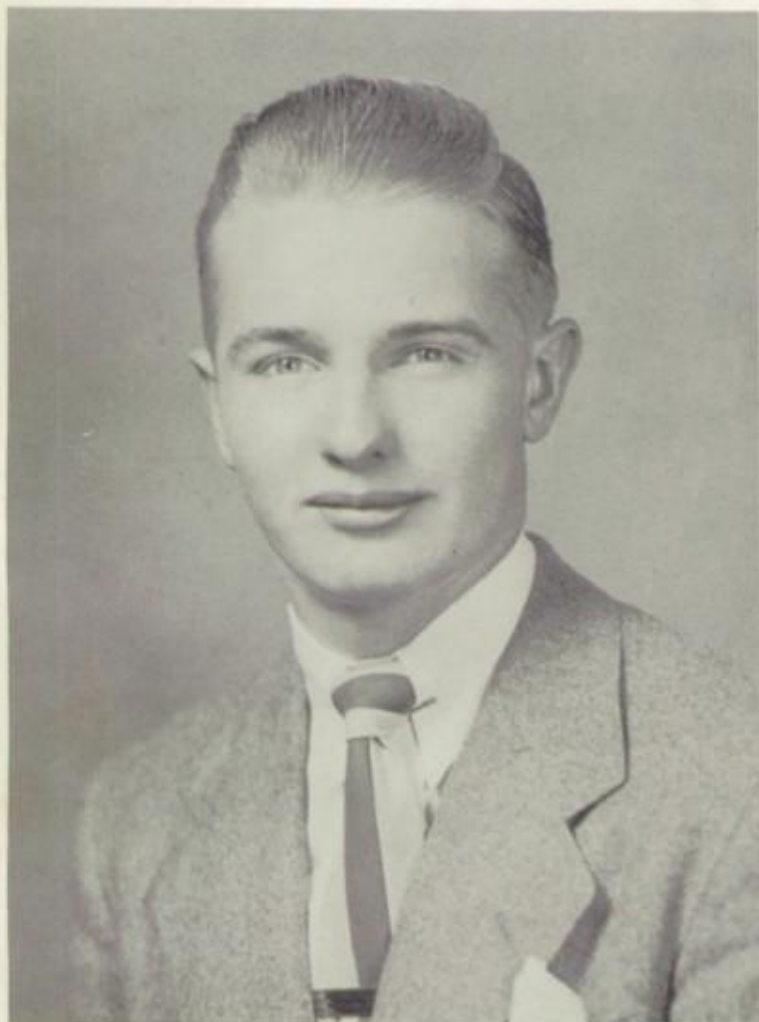

ANNE BALL ROBERTS

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm

Anne's charming and sympathetic manner helps her make friends easily. In her enthusiastic way she throws herself into any activity she undertakes. Her flair for dramatics and directing has benefitted our class in many ways. As a Junior she took the feminine lead in "The Pampered Darling" which was presented at the County Center, and in her Senior year won the coveted part of Emily in "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". As director of the "Music Box Revue", her originality and hard work helped to make it the smashing hit that it was. Besides these successes, she has been active in Chorus, Ushers Club, Periauger, and the school paper. In college, Anne plans to study dramatics and four years hence will take Broadway by storm.

THORNTON HENRY SECOR

I am tired of four walls and a ceiling; I have need of the grass

With a wide grin beneath his shock of blond hair, Thornton is well liked both by his teachers and classmates. He usually managed to make a good showing in studies as well as in athletics. A staunch linesman, he played end on the football team, and also won several D's for his work in tennis. Thornton has been a long-standing member of the band and one of its chief defenders. Every third period found him with Norris, in the closet of the music room, giving out with brassy renditions from their selected list of songs. Thornton is one of the few who belonged to both the band and chorus. His ability to read music helped the bass section over many rough spots. After attending agricultural college, Thornton plans to return to the land and be a farmer.

JUNE ALBERTA SIBLEY

Thy voice is a celestial melody

June's friendliness and cheerful smile have brightened up our high school years. Her ready laugh and sociability enliven any gathering that she is part of. We shall always remember her contributions to Dobbs Ferry High in the field of music. She has been a prominent member of the Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club since her Freshman year and was chosen in her Sophomore year to be a member of the Double Quartet. Her portrayal of "Lettie" in "Meet Arizona" was one of the outstanding performances of the year. A member of the F.B.L.A. for three years, June proved herself to be an efficient and capable worker. June's ambition is to be another Florence Nightingale and her kindly and sympathetic nature will make her a good one.

PATRICIA JOAN SMITH

A lady with a lamp shall stand

Pat's sweet smile and good humor make her a popular member of our class. A sports enthusiast, her boundless energy and spectacular dribble make her a swift-moving forward on the basketball court, where she excels. She is not limited in her athletic ability and is able to play all sports well. As a long-standing member of the F.B.L.A., she has taken part in its numerous activities. She also has sung in the Mixed Chorus. When asked what her favorite pastime is, Pat is quick to reply . . . "Loafing". She is much more ambitious than she admits, however, and has plans to be a baby nurse. We know she'll be good in this field for she has shown her patience and ability to deal with children in caring for her youngest sister.

MARY CARMEN TINO

Some think the world is made for fun and frolic

Mary's temperamental, vivacious personality and her striking appearance add sparkle wherever she is. Her boundless energy made her an indispensable member of the cheerleading squad. Active in athletics, she was a starring forward in basketball. As a member of the Ushers Club, Mary has helped make it an invaluable asset to school functions. She was a member of the Future Business Leaders of America and the Periauger staff. Aiding in the fund raising projects of the yearbook, she was a chorus girl in the "Music Box Revue".

In the spring, this young girl's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of the Yankees. Every game finds her eagerly following the plays at the Yankee Stadium. If Mary can't be found, look for her at the diner where she spends much of her time.

ANGELO CHARLES TISI

Man is the only animal that blushes, or needs to

Charlie's abilities can easily be perceived by the wide range of activity his versatile make-up allows him. He excels not only in athletics, but also in classwork. He was elected class president four times—ample proof of his popularity. In the realm of athletics, Charlie stars. He quarter-backed the football team, was an all-star forward in basketball, and was top man on the tennis team. His performance of Otis Siskinner in the Senior Play revealed hitherto unknown dramatic talents. His versatility was further demonstrated by his election to the Honor Society and his appointment as subscription editor of the Periauger. Although usually quiet and reserved, his flashes of wit and cynical tongue sometimes amazed us. The idol of the underclass girls, on or off the athletic field, he was a hit. Presiding ably over the class, getting honor grades, winning letters in three major sports, and gaining popularity, Charlie has accomplished all that is possible in the school.

KATHERINE MARY TRUBE

The mildest manners and the gentlest heart

Kay, although quiet and reserved, is a hard worker and a loyal friend. Her efficient but unassuming manner makes her a valuable member of our class. Participating in many activities during her high school years she was always willing to do her share of work. In her Junior year she became a member of the Spanish Club and also joined the staff of the school paper. She represented the Periauger on the Activities Council in her Senior year and served the yearbook faithfully and well. She was also active in the Career Club, a representative for the Red Cross and an alto in the Mixed Chorus. Kay's ambition is to be a kindergarten teacher, and her patience will undoubtedly be a great asset in her chosen career.

ROBERT CHARLES WEIGEL

This sort of skill takes a great deal of training

Well known for his ear-to-ear grin and his well-dressed appearance, Wiggles has fought his way through a maze of textbooks, living only for the time when he could relax fixing motors or with his fellow Top-Hatters. In the realm of athletics, he was a stand-out member of the football and baseball teams. In football he was a hard-hitting linesman; in baseball he helped the team slug its way to the championship. As a skater he has brought fame to Dobbs Ferry through the many championships he has won. Having started his skating career at five, Wiggles attained success in speed skating and went on to win, among others, the Middle Atlantic Outdoor Speed Skating Championship, and the Silver Skates Championship in Madison Square Garden. Wiggles plans to be a mechanic and someday own a garage.

ROZELLA ZOLAN

I knew you by your eyes

Rozella's pretty face and vivacious smile immediately put her in the limelight. Another of our three year graduates, Ro has contributed her many artistic talents to our class. The backdrop for the Kick Chorus in the "Music Box Revue" was designed by her, and her colorful posters have publicized this and other events. She also represented the Art Club on the Activities Council. An editor of the school paper, she was in charge of the Senior write-ups this year and was found rushing to meet the deadlines. Ro has been an integral part of the Dramatic Club, prompting and helping behind the scenes, and has participated in the Mixed Chorus and Whistlers. Rozella's future lies in illustrating or fashion designing and her originality and talent should take her far in this field.
